

DIAGNOSTIC PATHOLOGY
MEDICAL GROUP, INC.

Diagnostic Pathology Medical Group invites you to a free educational seminar

Case Presentations in Gastrointestinal and Liver Pathology

The presentation will include interesting gastrointestinal and liver pathology cases, highlighting the role of clinical-pathological correlation. The case mix will include biopsies and surgical cases from adults and pediatric patients.

Speaker: Marian L. Butcher, MD- DPMG GI/Liver Pathologist

Marian L. Butcher, MD

Gastrointestinal/Liver Pathology
Fellowship, University of California, Los Angeles.

Surgical Pathology Fellowship, Stanford University.

Anatomic and Clinical Pathology
Residency, University of Alabama, Birmingham, AL.

MD at Louisiana State University, Shreveport, L.A.

Date/Time: Thursday, December 7th, 2017 12:00pm – 12:45pm

Seminar Location: Ose Adams Building, 2nd floor – Conference Room B 2825 Capitol Ave. Sacramento

Lunch will be provided

Attendees please RSVP by December 4th (916) 952-3881 or www.dpmginc.com/events. A live webcast will also be available.

DPMG provides both inpatient and outpatient pathology services for Sutter Medical Foundation. DPMG pathologists are the Laboratory Medical Directors at six Sutter hospitals. With more than 70 years of experience and twenty-three board certified pathologists with varying subspecialties, DPMG is able to provide a broad range of expertise.